

PENDING FILE

By

Korrapati Gangadhara Rao

Episode – 1

Somappa has been allotted twenty acres of banjar land by the Government. For an official sanction of the same, he visits the office often. Senior clerk Ramdas and Junior Clerk Syamala Rao are of different opinion regarding the land. That he is taking bribe because he has to rear a big family is the slogan of the Senior Clerk while his Junior says that everyone has his own difficulties, but I don't take bribes.

Venkataramaiah, a landlord wants to grab the twenty acre land with the connivance of the officer. But Syamala Rao doesn't allow. Venkataramaiah tries to offer a bribe but Syamala Rao rejects it. Senior Ramdas advises him that they must overlook certain things. Syamala Rao puts up a note that according to rules, Somappa must get the land. Venkata Ramaiah, knowing that his plan will not be successful sends a peon, Bhadraiah to C.I.D. Syamala Rao takes a thousand rupees as bribe. Ramdas wants him to keep it secretly inside the drawyer. Syamala Rao says that since he has taken the bribe publicly, let this money be framed and put on the wall.

He gives the thousand rupees to Bhadraiah and asks him to divide it among the servants.

Bhadraiah who has taken the amount arrests Venkataramaiah. He reveals that he is a S.I. and came in the guise only to know about the scandal in the office. Venkataramaiah and the officer go to see the minister who rejects to sign Venkataramaiah's papers. The S.I. congratulates Syamala Rao, but the officer cautions Syamala Rao to keep aside his 'hot' ideas and get back to work.