Episode – 1

Vallabha Rao and Subhadra are wife and husband. Rajasekhar was some time Vallabha Rao's partner in business. Though the partnership broke off, they are still friends.

Subhadra and Rajasekhar move closely. Vallabha Rao dislikes it. He cannot ask Subhadra to stop it because he himself prompted her to move freely in the society as an educated woman should do. He particularly dislikes them going to moves and parties together.

One day, on seeing Rajasekharam and Subhadra go out laughing and in a happy mood, Vallabha Rao itches to take vengeance on him. He starts imagining how intimately they must be moving. This makes his eyes red and mind agitated. At this time comes Parasu Ram who helped Vallabha Rao once and requires some help from him now. In his agitated mood he is harsh to Parsuram. Parasuram asks him to adjust twenty five thousand rupees which he needs badly. He even says that he will take the contract work of the cinema hall Rao is constructing and repay the amount. Looking at the agitation of Rao, Parasuram slowly drags him into conversation. During the course of the conversation, Vallabha Rao vomits out his venom for Rajasekhar and commits that if Parasuram kills Subhadra, the twenty five thousand he requires will be his.

Subhadra comes back. Vallabha Rao introduces Parasuram as a man who has helped him greatly in the past. By the time Subhadra gets coffee, Vallabha Rao goes out. While they are taking coffee, Parasuram tells Subhadra about Vallabha Rao's desire to kill her. Subhadra is upset. She says she is innocent. It is her husband who insisted on moving closely with people in society. Anyway his real character is revealed today and she told him not to think of meeting her again. Parasuram tells her that her husband wants him to kill her with pistol for which he will be given Rs. 25,000/-.

Hearing the demand of her husband to kill her, Subhadra wants to commit suicide. Parasuram asks her to give twenty five thousand and he will leave her without killing her. She agrees and both of them go into the garden.

Episode – 2

Vallabha Rao comes back. He is unable to see into the eyes of Parasuram. He sees around the room. He imagines that Parasuram and Subhadra are moving happily together. When he is breathing heavily with this thought, a reporter comes and enquires about a murder that is going to take place here. His office is informed so. Vallabha Rao says that the murder is in the next house.

Parasuram asks Vallabha Rao to go and see how the dead body of his wife is lying in the garden. Vallabha Rao rejects to see the devil's body. Parasuram assures him that he will look after everything.

Rajasekharam is now inactive. Vallabha Rao introduced them to each other. Parasuram introduces himself as a professional killer.

Rajasekharam tells Parasuram that for six years he has been loving her, she encouraged him and he had done several things to please her and today when he took her closely she gave a slap. She insulted me. Parasuram told him to give him twenty five thousand and he would finish her. Rajasekharam said that he did not have twenty five thousand, but has a diamond necklace bought for her. He asked Parasuram to keep it but Parasuram said he needed money. Rajasekhar said that he would pay the money immediately after he killed her and wrote something on a chit and handed it over to Parasuram.

Episode – 3

Vallabha Rao, who came in, saw Rajasekharam and Parasuram speaking to each other amicably and suspected that Subhadra might have sent him to kill him so that she and Rajasekhar could be happy.

Parasuram told Vallabha Rao that Subhadra insulted Rajasekhar in a party. Vallabha Rao did not believe it. What else happens if you want to touch fire? Asks Parasuram. "How can she be fire?" asks Vallabha Rao. Parasuram tells about the entire incident.

"If you know that there is no mistake in her, why did you kill her?" encounters Vallabha Rao. He says it is for money Rajasekhar comes in and there is a quarrel between Rajasekhar and Vallabha Rao. Rajasekhar says that it is the right punishment to Subhadra for insulting him before all.

The reporter came and said that he heard that a lady had slapped a man in the party. He still wanted to know where did the murder take place.

Parasuram answered that the jewel which is to be kept on the head and worship is suspected and the husband himself ordered to kill her.

Having love a friend's wife and having mistaken that she also loved him and so advanced and received a slap, this Rajasekhar, out of vengeance asked to kill her.

"What a headline for his paper?" cries the reporter. He wants to take the photographs of the dead lady. No dead body here, says Parasuram.

Subhadra comes from within and falls at the feet of her husband.

Parasuram said that he needed twenty five thousand rupees to save his sister's family. And his sister's husband is Rajasekharam. He asked Rajasekharam to look after his sister well giving him the bag containing the money.

Rajasekharam accepted his mistakes and left telling Subhadra that he was going to bring his wife.
